JEFFREY ALEXANDER STERLING	)

STIPULATION NO.

The United States of America, through its attorneys, and the defendant, Jeffrey Alexander Sterling, and the defendant's attorneys, hereby stipulate and agree that, if called to testify, John and Lora Dawson would testify consistent with the following:

- From approximately August 2003 to approximately July 2004, the defendant lived in 1. the home of John and Lora Dawson at 6817 Crest Avenue, University City, St. Louis, Missouri. No one other than John and Lora Dawson, their infant child, and the defendant lived at that address during that time. The defendant did not own a cell phone or personal computer during that time.
- 2. John and Lora Dawson permitted the defendant to use the telephone at their residence. which during that entire time was assigned the number (314) 862-8850. The defendant used that telephone to make and receive long distance telephone calls while he lived with the Dawsons.
- 3. From February 9, 2004, until June 11, 2004, nineteen telephone calls were placed from (202) 862-0300, the telephone number for the Washington, D.C., office of The New York Times, to (314) 862-8850, the Dawsons' home telephone number, as reflected in Government Exhibit 98 (page 3, call 8, through page 8, call 25). During this time, neither of the Dawsons knew anyone who lived or worked in Washington, D.C., and the Dawsons had no reason to receive calls from anyone at the Washington, D.C., office, or any other office, of The New York Times.

4. During the time the defendant resided with the Dawsons, the Dawsons permitted the defendant to use a computer—to wit, a Packard Bell L100, bearing serial number P493907180, containing Seagate Hard Drive ST33210A, bearing serial number 5AB11AEB—located in their spare bedroom to send and receive e-mails, and the defendant did, in fact, use the Dawsons' computer to do so. During this time, no one other than the Dawsons and the defendant had access to the computer. At no time did the Dawsons use the computer to send e-mails to or receive e-mails from James Risen or anyone affiliated with The New York Times.
